

Library Noise Policy

Compliance with library policies helps to ensure an atmosphere conducive to study and research. At the discretion of library staff, users in violation of Yeats Library policies may be asked to change their behaviour or leave the Library.

- Mobile phone conversations need to be conducted outside the Library.
- Mobile phones should be switched to vibrate or silent before entering the Library.
- Laptop computers maybe used but all sound or audio features must be turned off or headphones should be used.

Quiet Zone Silent individual study

Noise level permitted - No talking, zero tolerance.

Noise policy - Library patrons who fail to abide by the quiet study policies will be asked to leave the quiet study area.

Info Zone Brief business conversation

Noise level permitted - Quiet at the couches, photocopiers and computers.

Business level at the Information Desk

Noise policy - Group conversations at couches and copiers not allowed.

Social Learning Zone Group project work, moderate noise only.

Noise level permitted - Moderate noise only.

Noise policy - Loud or disruptive behaviour will not be tolerated and patrons can be asked to leave or library staff will call campus security.

If you observe a noise policy violation, please contact the Information Desk.